

We all know that we have the duty to love our neighbor as ourselves. But most of us encounter two big difficulties in the practical application of this all important commandment. The first concerns whom to include in the very wide category of "Neighbor." The second difficulty is to actually love all those who fall into that category. Today's Gospel parable of the Good Samaritan tells us that our "neighbor" is every human being, including our enemies. It also teaches us that we must show our love for all our brothers and sisters by being attentive to their needs, even at the cost of personal sacrifice.

Only if we fulfill these conditions can we claim to be disciples of Jesus, the Divine Samaritan. In this Eucharist let us pray in a special manner for those who find it difficult to accept and love all as their neighbor.

THIS IS YOUR NEWS BULLETIN'S LAST ISSUE FOR THE PASTORAL YEAR. WE'LL BACK ON THE SECOND SUNDAY OF AUGUST . Have a wonderful, enjoyable, and safe Summer !

Summer is always a welcome change of schedule: vacations, camping, trips, a time for family. And, of course, family time is so crucial. The highest priority in the home is love, and the summer opportunities provide great occasions to focus on things neglected.

It is also a time of ad hoc stewardship:

What will this summer accomplish?

When Labor Day signals a return to school and other normal routines, what will the summer months have yielded for your "investment"? Give it some thought.

Please be informed that in the FCMM, during the summer months of July and August there is NO CHANGE in the schedule of our celebration of the Weekday and Sunday Eucharist + Wednesdays and Fridays at 6:00 p.m. +Sundays at 11:30 a.m.

Parents are particularly encouraged to make the extra effort to find a Sunday Mass when the family is traveling on summer vacation.

Religious Education helps to build a strong foundation

❖ CATECHISTS NEEDED

As we enter the summer months without school schedules to think about we would ask you to consider becoming a Catechist for the coming year. You will receive all of the training, materials and support you will need and the rewards are heavenly! We need your support of this Religious Education program that our Community has so beautifully established. Please consider becoming a Catechist so that the energy may continue to remain in the program. Come to the FCMM Office or see Sr. Celia, Fr. Frank, Mr. Fruan Tabamo, or Mrs. Linda Ballares.

❖ DON'T FORGET TO REGISTER YOUR CHILD !

Parents who would like to enroll their children in the CLEC for the coming school year must signify their interest by registering their child(ren) with the Catechetical Ministry. Registration will be on all the Sundays of August. For more information please see any of our Catechists or visit the FCMM Office.

- STEWARDSHIP - "Go and do likewise."

Luke 10:37

This was Jesus' simple command to all of us at the end of the Good Samaritan story. How do we do "likewise?" By taking the time to help when we are needed. By sharing our skills. By reaching into our pockets when financial help is needed. In short, by being a good steward.

LAUGH YOUR WAY THROUGH SUMMER !!!

Well, summer is in full bloom. You can shoot a canon through most churches these days without causing a single casualty. What is it about summer that somehow makes skipping church the "Christian" thing to do?

Here are the TOP 5 Heavenly REASONS TO COME TO CHURCH EVEN THOUGH IT'S SUMMER !!!

- * Because praying while on a Roller Coaster does NOT constitute an active prayer life.
- * Because saving people from the "heat" is what Christianity is all about!
- * Because this week's absentee equals next week's sermon illustration.
- * Because it makes your day to see the Priest, Ministers, and Altar Servers sweat!

*And the number one reason to come to church even though it is Summer is:

Because when we say that Jesus is the Lord of our lives, we do NOT mean 9/12ths of our lives!
