

This Sunday, the First Reading and the Gospel present to us examples of exceptional callings, which require a radical generosity. This obviously applies only to those whom God calls to one form or other of consecrated life. All of us, however, as disciples of Christ, are expected to make him our Number 1 and to imitate him in his detachment from material comforts and his single-mindedness in doing the will of the Father.

This is what we are called to do, day by day, in the fulfillment of the duties of our particular state of life. In this way, following the teaching of St. Paul, we will be using the freedom which Christ earned for us, not to commit sin but to serve our neighbor the best way we can. This is how we contribute to the creation of a civilization of life and love. In the Eucharistic celebration, let us ask God's help to be faithful to such a commitment.

Please be informed that during the summer months of July and August in the FCMM, there is NO CHANGE in the schedule of our celebration of the Weekday and Sunday Eucharist

+ Wednesdays and Fridays at 6:00 p.m.
+ Sundays at 11:30 a.m.

A SUMMER REMINDER

As the temperatures rise ... let's choose our clothing wisely. Our Lady of Fatima warned us that many fashions displease our Lord very much. She also said many souls go to hell because of sins of the flesh. Guard yourselves and your children from these sins. Prepare carefully when dressing for Mass, as you would to be in the presence of a King. Because you are!

Although the heat is on, we ask that you dress appropriately for Sunday Mass. No shorts, tank tops, flip-flops, etc. etc. Save your beach and BBQ wear for another time. Our Lord is indeed hidden in the tabernacle; we don't see Him face to face, but believe in His true (though veiled) presence through our act of faith. As our King and Lord, He is worthy of the highest adoration ... and respect. Does our manner of dress somehow reflect the sentiments of our heart?

The heat is on ... and so we dress accordingly, right? Shorts, sleeveless tops ... whatever keeps us cool. But wait a minute ... it's Sunday morning and time to prepare for Mass. Whether we consciously think of it or not, this will be the most important event of the day ... and certainly worth a bit of 'fuss' when it comes to choosing what to wear. Think about it ... the angels hide their face before His Majesty ... and what have we just pulled off the hanger? If we're dressed to go visit our little cartoon friend on the left ... we need to back up and try again! It'll only take a minute and God will bless us for the effort.

The SANCTUARY LAMP this week is burning for the GLORY OF GOD and AS WEDDING ANNIVERSARY THANKSGIVING offered by REY and LINDA BALLARES.

STEWARDSHIP - "For you were called to freedom, brothers and sisters.

But do not use this freedom as an opportunity for the flesh; rather serve one another through love." - Galatians 5:13

We like to celebrate the fact that we are free to "live the good life." But Jesus calls us to a different kind of freedom. St. Paul reminds us that Jesus sets us free so that we can serve one another, share our gifts and promote God's work here on earth.

Sweat and Toil

We have reached the point in Luke's gospel where Jesus is setting out on his 'great journey' to Jerusalem, a journey which symbolizes our journey through life toward death and resurrection. In the course of our journey we are to follow Christ. Come after me, Jesus says, and our response is to be: I will be your follower wherever you go. We can ask if we follow Christ. Do we walk in the way of the cross or do we follow some other way? We can ask how we follow Christ. Do we follow Christ through some special calling or through the ordinary Christian vocation and through the acceptance of the challenge of daily living? We can ask which Christ do we follow. Do we follow a Christ of our own making, one that confirms us in our present lifestyle, or do we follow the Christ of the gospels, especially the Gospel of Luke: the humble Christ dedicated to the liberation of the poor and oppressed? The call to follow Christ is no mean challenge: Let the dead bury their dead; come away and proclaim the kingdom of God. "Sweat and toil, which work necessarily involves in the present condition of the human race, present the Christian and everyone who is called to follow Christ with the possibility of sharing lovingly in the work that Christ came to do. This work of salvation came about through suffering and death on a cross.

" By enduring the toil of work in union with Christ crucified for us, man in a way collaborates with the son of God for the redemption of humanity. He shows himself a true disciple of Christ by carrying the cross in his turn every day in the activity that he is called upon to perform." (Pope John Paul II, Laborem Exercens ,1981, 27)
