

We live in a world torn by conflicting interests, jealousy, aggressiveness, and so many forms of enslavement. All this is the consequence of SIN, from the first to the latest sin that has darkened the horizon of mankind. Left to ourselves, we would have been unable to overcome such destructive forces. That is why God promised and sent the Holy Spirit, as the divine healing Power that can undo the tragedies of division, mistrust, hatred, and death brought about by human sinfulness. As we commemorate the descent of the Holy Spirit over the disciples gathered in the Upper Room, let us open our hearts to him so that we, too, may share in their wonderful experience. May the Holy Spirit fashion us to the likeness of Jesus and into a community characterized by mutual acceptance, appreciation, solidarity, and love.

THE MISSION OF THE HOLY SPIRIT IN THE CHURCH

When the Son (Jesus) completed the work with which the Father had entrusted him on earth, the Holy Spirit was sent on the day of Pentecost (50 days after Easter) to sanctify the Church unceasingly, and thus enable believers to have access to the Father through Christ in the one Spirit. This Spirit is the Spirit of life, the fountain of water welling up to give eternal life. The Spirit dwells in the Church and in the hearts of all the faithful. The Spirit prays in them and bears witness to them through their adoption as children of God. The Spirit leads the Church into all truth and gives unity in communion and in service.

The Spirit endows the Church with different GIFTS: wisdom, understanding, right judgment, courage, knowledge, reverence, wonder and awe (1 Corinthians 12) and directs it by their means, and enriches it with His FRUITS: love, joy, peace, goodness, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, modesty, gentleness and self-control (Galatians 5:22-23).

These GIFTS and FRUITS are given to us at Baptism and strengthened at our Confirmation.

Go forth now as Pentecost people, filled with the Spirit, dreaming dreams, and seeing visions of God's possibilities.

We go forth, knowing we are beloved and blessed by a God who never leaves us alone. Go, to be surprised by the Spirit in all that you do and everywhere that you go.

We go, claiming our identity as Pentecost people--people of wind and fire, dreams and visions, people filled with That most amazing and transforming Spirit. Amen.

 - John 14:26

The materialism of our society lures us to concentrate more on what we want than on what God wants for us and from us. It is good to know that when we are confused by our stewardship responsibilities we can call on the Holy Spirit to show us the way.
